Mexico

News

1. Konnan will return to Mexico City with the WWF on April 19, 1991 (not firm date but 99% sure) and it's likely that the WWF in order to build its crowd will let Konnan have the main event of that card as his hair match with Perro Aguayo. The EMLL should never let Perro near that building in my opinion. That's giving a sellout match to the competition. Konnan tells OVACIONES that his contract is for two years and allows him to return to Mexico three times per year. Konnan says he will bring with him "light, rays, lasers, and robots."
2. Lizmark has announced that his broken clavicle is coming along nicely, but he will not return to the EMLL wrestling rings until they return to la Arena Mexico this coming June.
3. New wrestler el Violento has done very well at the house shows and will debut for the EMLL on Galavision within the next few weeks; el Misterioso is returning soon, as well.
4. At the last Arena Mexico show (3/22/91) los Kaifanes I/II were mistakenly turned away from the dressing room entrance by security who thought that they were two fans who had bought cheap masks as a way to get in backstage! Finally Paco Alonso came out and corrected the matter. These two guys are very small (under 150 pounds) by the way unless they have put on weight since the last time I saw them in late October 1990.
5. el Hijo del Santo will have his next mandatory title defense of his UWA World Welterweight Title versus el Hijo del Diablo out in the sticks; OVACIONES laments that it was not signed for el Toreo. It will be the last week of April.
6. In miscellaneous news, OVACIONES reports that Masakre, el Hijo del Gladiador, Universo Dos Mil, and Mascar Año Dos Mil have had very good 1991s so far, free from injury and fairly good rudo drawing cards. The paper also reports that el Dandy is working several two-a-day shots per week and is very tired and is not at his best lately due to the overwork.
7. el Brazo de Oro was interviewed by OVACIONES on 4/4/91, and he said that the first defense for he and his brother as UWA Parejas champions would be 4/10/91 at el Cortijo versus el Texano and Silver King, so I assume that that latter pair won the el Cortijo challenge tournament this week to qualify as challengers.
8. Finally, the paper reports that Konnan el Barbaro is getting lots and lots of fan mail at the paper's office, decrying the injustice of his losing his mask to Perro Aguayo. For his actions during the match, referee el Gran

Davis was suspended by the commission (this is true but is all part of the script) and that is why he was nowhere to be seen on any match on last week's (3/31/91 air date) Galavision show!
